Free Virtual CLE & Lunch:

Maximizing Litigation Graphics

Wednesday, August 13th | 12:00 PM PST | 1.00 General Credit

Visual communications are the cornerstone of successful trials and depositions everywhere.

This program will address various practical issues on the use of graphics in adversarial proceedings. Tied in with examples of graphics and the strategic impact of their use will be a range of topics from the field of jury research and consulting. Various types of graphics from still images to animations will be demonstrated with the intent of explaining the interaction of strategic graphic design and the connection to case themes. Evidentiary issues surrounding the use of graphics at trial will also be addressed. Finally, we will address pitfalls and graphical tricks.

All registrants will receive a free Uber Eats voucher for lunch during the presentation.
