

JUSTICE FOR EVERY GENERATION

Help ensure that people of all ages understand the history and value of their Seventh Amendment right to civil trial by jury and the American civil justice system. Contributions to the ABOTA Foundation foster a number of educational programs, including:

Civics Education Programs

Justice by the People — Lesson plans that teach about the U.S. Constitution, democracy, jury trials, and media literacy.

Teachers Law School® — A crash course in the law for our nation's educators.

James Otis Lecture Series® — A field trip opportunity for students to learn about their constitutional liberties through programs that celebrate Constitution Day in September.

Civics Education Literacy Program — An early introduction to civic duty and constitutional rights for kinder through sixth grade students through storytelling and mentorship.

Professional Education Programs

Masters in Trial® — Furthers the education and training of lawyers.

ABOTA National Trial College — Week-long trial skills workshop for promising new attorneys.

Civility Matters — Delivered to lawyers and law students, this program puts the focus on civility and professionalism and bringing honor and respect in the practice of law

Public Awareness

Our Public Awareness division works in cooperation with Save Our Juries to ensure that the public has access to information about and a deeper understanding of the rights afforded to them by the Constitution
